

Members of the Executive Committee met via Zoom on October 5 at 8:00 p.m. Central to discuss ideas on possible changes to the organization structure of Midwest Women's Fellowship. Members present included Ruth Falk, Lori Hemphill, Rita Lyon, Julia Mann, Abigail Parnell, and Elizabeth Reed.

It was decided by consensus to gather feedback from the women of the Midwest Presbytery via survey about reorganizing in a way that would more resemble a camp committee, and to see if women would volunteer to serve on a standing committee to support such a plan.

Respectfully submitted,
Abigail Parnell
